

U.S. MAIL S.S. CO.

Sail under the American Flag when you make that projected trip to Europe. The U. S. Mail Steamship Company's splendid fleet of eighteen palatial passenger liners, headed by the famous steamer George Washington, offers to American tourists and travelers every modern detail of comfortable and luxurious ocean travel.

Appointments, service, cuisine, interior decorations and furnishings of all steamers are on a level with the finest, and individual accommodations range from the luxurious Presidential suites of the George Washington and similar suites on other steamers to comfortably furnished staterooms with or without private bath.

Spacious decks, some glassed in; beautifully furnished lounge, social and smoking rooms add to the pleasure of the voyage.

Book your passage with the line that is 100% American—that gives 100% service.
